

Vermilion County Conservation District

JOB POSTING

Environmental Educator

- Application Deadline: January 17, 2022
- Compensation: $35,000 for first six months with benefits package; $2,500 salary increase six months after starting date.
- Terms of Employment: Year-round, 40 hours a week. Must be willing to work weekends and evenings on occasion.
- Duties: The Environmental Educator has the responsibility of performing all duties and aspects of the Education Department, which includes in-classroom presentations, after-school programs, summer camp programs, evening and weekend programs, adult education, specialty programs, seminars and workshops, as well as the Outdoor School Program.
- Qualifications: Bachelor's degree, or qualified relevant experience, in environmental education, biology, botany, outdoor recreation, or a closely related field. Knowledge of Illinois Natural History. Must reside within a 45-mile radius of the VCCD Headquarters (Kennekuk County Park).
- For full job description duties, qualifications, and details, visit www.vccd.org/396-2/
- Submit resume plus two letters of recommendation to ldanzl@vccd.org, or Vermilion County Conservation District, attn: Lara Danzl, 22296 Henning Road, Danville, IL 61834